Ramakant Govind Telawane — Appellant
Vs.
Chandrakant Baban Pawar — Respondent

Mr.N.B.Shah for appellant.
Mr.Mandar Limaye h/f. Mr.R.S.Apte for respondent.

CORAM: B.H.MARLAPALLE, J.

April 25, 2007.

P.C.

. During the pendency of this Second Appeal the parties have negotiated for an amicable settlement and the terms of the said settlement have been recorded in writing in the form of Consent Terms. These Consent Terms have been signed by both the parties and their respective learned Advocates state that the Consent Terms were signed in their presence. The appellant is present in the Court and he states that he has understood the Consent Terms and he has signed the same voluntarily and he has acted upon the said Terms.

. The appellant has paid an amount of Rs.75,000/- in cash to the respondents in consideration of his giving up the rights as claimed in respect of the suit property.

. The Consent Terms are taken on record and marked as "X" for identification. Mr.Shah, the learned counsel for the appellant, therefore, seeks leave to withdraw the appeal. Leave granted and the appeal is dismissed as withdrawn on account of the settlement.
